When the morn, when the morn o'er the moun-tain glows, And our mai-dens the sum-mons o - bey,

4

A - - long the hill how pleas'd we hear The Shepherd's song, so sweet and clear, While the rocks and the dells, as the sig - nal swells, Re - e-cho re - - e - cho the lay!

When the Horn when the Horn o'er the mountain blows, And the Hunters are up with the prey, Oh! one there is who loves with me To hail the fo-rest har-mo-ny! While the rocks and the dells, as the cho - rus swells, Re - - e - cho re - e - - cho the lay.

When the night when the night o'er the moun - tain grows, And the Lads to the vale hie a - way, Then sweet - ly rings our fi - nal strain "We on - ly part to meet a - gain!" While the rocks and the dells, as their mu - sic swells, Re - e - cho re - e - cho the lay!
